TUESDAY JANUARY 31, 2023

CELEBRATING HOW OUR COMMUNITY
COMES TOGETHER TO LIVE UNITED!

2022 - YEAR IN REVIEW

United Way fights for the health, education, and financial stability of everyone in Logan County. We do it by facilitating successful agency partnerships that enable a safe, healthy, and caring community. Since 1955, United Way of Logan County has raised more than $28 million to support the specific social service needs of our community. More than just a fundraiser, United Way collaborates with businesses, non-profits, government, and civic organizations to help meet the ever-evolving human service needs of Logan County.

Logan County remains the smallest community in Ohio to ever raise $1 million in one year for its local United Way. And you've now done that five straight years.

But a successful annual campaign is just the tip of the iceberg. With your help, we are addressing the biggest human service needs facing our community. 12,685 people utilized a United Way-funded program last year.

Help for housing is the number one reason why people call United Way for help. After bringing the rent and utility assistance program we were funding in-house in 2021, our new Housing Stability Program fielded a 44 percent increase in calls in 2022. We met with 195 households throughout the year to either prevent evictions or utility shutoffs or help others establish permanent housing, doubling the impact from two years ago (468 people impacted).

Last year, our local schools served 118 homeless students. We fielded calls for help from 163 homeless individuals. Our Logan County Homeless Shelter consistently has a waiting list that's twice as large as their capacity. So in August, we co-hosted a Roundtable on Homelessness in Logan County. More than 70 community leaders joined us to learn more about the needs versus available local resources. Short and long-term solutions were discussed. Multiple entities are working to address them now.

More than 400 volunteers flexed their muscles by completing nearly 50 pre-coordinated service projects on Community Care Day. 27 of those projects took place beyond the city of Bellefontaine, stretching to all four corners of Logan County. Our 8th Annual corporate volunteer event will next take place on Friday August 25, 2023.

No one goes hungry in Logan County! United Way funded agencies served up 971,345 meals last year. Second Harvest Food Bank's Mobile Pantries (pictured above with Student United Way volunteers) delivered 876,252 during their distributions located in Bellefontaine, Rushsylvania, Russells Point, Quincy and West Liberty. LifeCare Alliance served 46,763 to homebound senior citizens via meals-on-wheels. Lutheran Community Services gave 30,485 through their Our Daily Bread soup kitchen and Christmas giveaways. Greater Riverside Area Community Encouragers fed 15,407 backpack meals to students. And the Logan County Neighborhood Outreach Centers prepared 2,438 meals for kids over the summer.

Our unique, on-site resource coordination program, LIVE UNITED @ WORK, continues to serve employees of 10 participating workplaces (AGC, CRSI, Green Hills, Logan Acres, Logan County Board of DD, NX Automotive, RTC Services, RV Wholesalers, SpartanNash, and Universal Hospice). Ashley Spence, our Licensed Social Worker, has met confidentially with 880 employees about non-work related needs since the program's inception in 2019, connecting them to available help in the community. Workers have taken out 41 Small Dollar Loans totaling $52,982 with our partner, Quest Federal Credit Union, to avoid payday lenders and help with needed financing. LIVE UNITED @ WORK has received national recognition within the United Way Worldwide network for program innovation.

In September, our three largest corporate partners (NX Automotive Logistics, American Honda Motor Company, and Marker, Inc.) sent their experts in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion to lead a Roundtable Discussion and workshop with our Funded Agencies in advance of the annual funding application period. We all gained a deeper appreciation of the needs our corporate partners have in our local social service network. In response, we modified our United Way funding applications with new questions to help our partners better define outcomes and tell stories of their collaborative efforts.

A new partnership with Community Blood Center brings the bloodmobile to Logan County every two months to collect blood donations that support regional hospitals, including Mary Rutan. 99 donors gave the gift of life last year.

FRAN DEWINE VISITS CHILDREN

Ohio First Lady Fran DeWine read to kids at the YMCA Early Learning Center in September to promote the statewide presence of the Dolly Parton Imagination Library. 21,523 books have been mailed to over 4,000 Logan County children since United Way brought the monthly book club to town in 2017. Logan County is 4th in the state with more than 60 percent of our preschoolers enrolled.

MELODY COUCHMAN JOINS UNITED WAY

Internally, United Way took steps to expand our operations, hiring Bellefontaine native Melody Couchman to serve as our Community Engagement Director. We also moved to our new office at 653 S. Main Street, thanks to our partnership with P. Allen Investment Realty, gaining space and saving money to further reduce our overhead expenses, which are now down to just seven percent.

OUR DAILY BREAD BREAKS GROUND

Lutheran Community Services was awarded the largest one-time grant in our history with $40,000 toward their new dining center and thrift store on West Sandusky Avenue. 22 one-time grants totaling $113,750 beyond regular agency funding were issued throughout the year to support projects that promote mental health among youth, independent senior living, and more.

MORE HELP FOR SENIORS AND NEW OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUTH HIGHLIGHT 2023 ALLOCATIONS

A record-setting United Way campaign has led to record-setting support for community needs in Logan County. 48 human service programs of 27 agencies will split more than $954,000 throughout 2023. Allocations to Funded Agencies will increase 13 percent over last year and internal United Way programs are also getting a boost.

According to the 2020 Census, the fastest growing segment of the Logan County population is senior citizens. As such, United Way is responding with $157,000 dedicated specifically for seniors. The amount includes $60,000 to RTC Services to help with their 60 percent increase in demand for transportation to take seniors to medical appointments, grocery shopping, and other errands. Green Hills Community will receive $57,000 to support in-home hospice care and their adult daybreak service which provides respite for caregivers. LifeCare Alliance will receive $40,000 to support more than 450 residents who receive meals-on-wheels and pet care.

Help with housing remains the number

Lunch Buddies is a new United Way initiative, pairing more than 80 adult mentors with 3rd and 4th graders at Bellefontaine Intermediate School to eat lunch together once a month through the school year. Modeled after long-time programs in Troy City Schools and Big Brothers Big Sisters of Union County, the goal is to improve the mental health, self-esteem, attendance, and grades of participating students as the matches build a relationship through conversation, games, and encouragement.

one reason why people call United Way. $155,250 will be invested in programming to support the homeless population and to prevent others from falling into that state. United Way is putting $80,000 into its own Housing Stability Program, which works to provide case management and financial assistance to prevent evictions and utility shutoffs. The Logan County Homeless Shelter ($35,000) and Caring Kitchen ($25,000) continue to be available for those already homeless. And Habitat for Humanity ($15,250) builds a home a year with a low-income families.

Overall, 38 of the 48 funded programs will receive what they asked for in 2023. 18 of the 48 programs are receiving increased funding. No agency that requested support was shut out of funding, though five program requests were denied.

New United Way Funded Agencies include CASA of Logan County to help train more volunteers to assist the court system in providing for abused and neglected children and Give & Take Community Services, which operates a food pantry and thrift store in West Mansfield.

Volunteers load up their cars to deliver "meals-on-wheels" for LifeCare Alliance. More than 320 homebound residents receive deliveries, allowing them to remain living independently in their homes.

Give & Take Community Services, a food pantry and thrift store in West Mansfield, received a $15,000 grant to repair its roof and became one of our newest Funded Agencies with a $2,500 allocation for 2023.

YOUR United Way gift will outfit over 450 Logan County kids like the brothers you see here through Warm Clothes for Kids. Bellefontaine teacher Stacy Penhorwood and a team of volunteers administer the outreach each year, shopping with kids referred by school personnel.

Recovery Zone is one of six United Way Funded Programs supporting mental health. Recovery Zone offers peer support and educational programming to aid in the process of understanding our mental health and substance use challenges, and to learn new skills for coping and managing symptoms.
